MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO Estamos llegando al final de la Cuaresma. Se termina el Jueves Santo con la Misa de la Cena del Señor. “En la Cuaresma, la Iglesia renueva la llamada a la conversión. El hombre nuevo nace en el Bautismo. Dios nos hace sus hijos y nos incorpora a Cristo y a su iglesia. Del corazón del hombre renovado, según Dios, proceden los comportamientos buenos. Estamos llamados a abandonar los comportamientos del pecado y a fijar la mirada en lo esencial” (Papa Francisco). ¿Qué sería lo esencial? Lo primero sería buscar dentro de nosotros mismos para dar respuesta, comenzando con mis actos y los de los demás. A veces, somos tan duros para juzgar. Aplicamos la ley de la piedra sin piedad. Duros de corazón, difíciles para practicar el perdón. Sin embargo, Tú, Señor, me perdonas con la blandura de un Evangelio escrito en el suelo, es decir, en tierra blanda. Aprovechemos hoy para pedir a Jesús la enseñanza de la misericordia. Esa misma misericordia aplicada a la mujer sorprendida en adulterio. ¿Qué debió haber sentido aquella persona acusada a la pregunta de Jesús? “Mujer, ¿dónde están? ¿Ninguno te ha condenado? Ella contestó: Ninguno, Señor. Y Jesús le dijo: Tampoco yo te condeno. Vete y en adelante no vuelvas a pecar” (Juan 8:10-11). Pues bien, el reto de la conversión es no volver a pecar. Es aprender día a día a ser buenos, con nosotros mismos y con los demás. -LPI	GOSPEL MEDITATION “The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle” (John 8:3). Why do they make her stand in the middle? Why not expose her on the periphery? The reason is something that affects us practically every day. The center is what stabilizes a community’s identity. We humans tend to center ourselves around an accused and condemned victim — though we rarely admit it. This renews our fragile communities and our power as those who weaponize the accusation. This is effective because it is often a victim who represents something truly dangerous for the group. In this case, adultery stands for the breakdown of a community and those within it, because it forces questions like: who is my father? Whose child is this? Is this child one of us, or that of an outsider? The accusers place the adulteress in the center because their community, like most, is built around turning an enemy into a victim. Once you understand this, you’ll see it almost anywhere humans group together (families, politics, workplaces, sports, schools, etc.). The good news is Jesus exposes this dynamic by deftly pointing out the sin-infected hearts of everyone besides the woman. They all leave, symbolizing the breakdown of the old order, and she is “left alone before him.” A new community has begun, structured around the merciful love of Christ. What is in your center? What is in the center of our parish and family communities? Strive to center on Christ’s forgiveness, and we experience the new, lasting community we call the Church. -Father John Muir
RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman La fascinación de tener la razón No fue una verdadera pregunta. “La ley de Moisés manda que la apedreemos. ¿Qué dices tú?”, preguntaron los fariseos a Jesús mientras le llevaban a la mujer adúltera a sus pies. Pero, ellos en realidad, no le estaban haciendo una pregunta a Jesús, ni les importaba cuál sería la respuesta de Jesús, no le preguntaron su opinión porque quisieran saber. Los fariseos le preguntaron pues querían usar las palabras de Jesús en su contra. La justicia y la verdad no eran el propósito. Solamente querían dejar claro que ellos tenían razón. En medio de toda esta escena, arrastrada delante de Jesús, utilizada como una verdadera protagonista en este drama escenificado, está una mujer. Una mujer en verdad, de carne y hueso. Me encuentro personalmente queriendo saber más acerca de ella. Los fariseos aseguraron que la “habían encontrado en el acto”, pero me pregunto qué significa eso. ¿Con quién se cometió este acto y los motivos por los cuales ella fue parte de eso? ¿Acaso la obligaron? ¿Tenía ella miedo? ¿Estaba confundida? ¿En realidad fue una situación a secas, claramente de adulterio, un acto de lujuria, de tomar la peor decisión? Nunca sabremos las respuestas a esas preguntas, y no importa; no es asunto nuestro. Dios sabe las respuestas. Dios sabe la verdad de todo el asunto: lo que ella hizo, lo que decidió, qué sintió. Porque para Jesús, ella no era una actriz, sino que ella era una persona. Cuando Dios nos ve, Él ve algo más allá de las peores decisiones que alguna vez hemos tomado. Me preocupa que nosotros nos usemos entre sí como protagonistas aún hoy en día, cuando intentamos, igual que los fariseos, demostrar “Lo que es correcto”. Tenemos una tendencia terrible a ver únicamente las decisiones, y al hacer eso deshumanizamos a las personas que toman esas decisiones. Muy a menudo, no nos importa la justicia o la verdad. Solo queremos tener la razón. -LPI	RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman The Allure of Being Right It wasn’t a real question. “The law of Moses says we should stone her. What do you say?” the Pharisees asked Jesus as they brought the adulterous woman before him. But they weren’t really asking. They didn’t care what Jesus’ answer was. They didn’t ask his opinion because they wanted to know. They asked because they wanted to use his words against him. Righteousness, truth — that wasn’t the goal. The goal was being right. And in the middle of the whole scene, dragged before Jesus, used as a literal prop in this staged drama, is a woman. A real flesh-and-blood woman. I find myself wanting to know more about her. She had been “caught in the act,” they claimed, but I wonder what that even means. With whom was this act committed, and what were the reasons for her participation in it? Was she coerced? Was she scared? Was she confused? Was it really a cut-and-dry, black-and-white situation of adultery, of lust, of making the wrong decision? We will never know the answers to these questions, and it doesn’t matter — it’s not our business. God knows the answers. God knows the truth of the matter: what she did, what she chose, what she felt. Because she wasn’t a prop to Him. She was a person. When God looks at us, he sees more than the worst decisions we’ve ever made. I worry that we use one another as props even today, when we try like the Pharisees to illustrate “What is Right.” We have a terrible tendency to see only decisions, and in doing so we dehumanize the people behind them. Too often, we don’t care about righteousness or truth. We just care about being right. -LPI

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Priesthood

Question:

If someone is interested in becoming a priest, how does he go about it?

Answer:

Discerning a vocation can happen in any number of ways. It might come as a surprise to the person called or to family or friends. Sometimes it is a gradual process, and other times it is as quick and bright as lightning. Regardless of how it starts, a vocation to the priesthood or religious life requires a process of discerning, testing, and preparing. The best place to begin would be with lots of prayer, receiving the sacraments, and attending daily Mass whenever possible. Then talk to your pastor or a priest you know and trust. Your diocese may have a vocation director who can provide you with guidance and information. The Serra Club is also a great resource for information and contacts to help you discern if indeed God is calling you.

Remember that many young Catholic men have considered the priesthood. Some are ordained and others realize this is not their calling. However, we are all called to be of service to others as we practice our faith. These are extraordinary times in which we live, and they require an extraordinary witness to faith and to God's presence in the world. Our work, our ministry as Catholics, is to be the body of Christ with and for others. The Church needs priests. If God calls you to ordained service in the church, He will provide the grace, direction, and support you need. Just listen and respond with all your heart, mind, and soul. -©LPi

† STEWARDSHIP ✉

Whatever you have – has been given.
Whatever you give – will be returned.

Please remember Saint Eugene in your Last Will and Testament

“...For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ...”(PHILIPPIANS 3:8)

The first commandment says that we should not put other gods before the Lord. Sharing all of our gifts. Living Stewardship by sharing our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works, and our treasure to support the Church helps us keep God first in everything. It helps us from putting other gods before God. It helps us from becoming a slave to our possessions. It helps us to use our gifts for the glory of God and not for the glory of ourselves.

THERE IS NO OFFERTORY UPDATE AVAILABLE AT THIS TIME.

“...Por Él lo he perdido todo, y lo considero como basura con tal de ganar a Cristo...” (Filipenses 3:8)

El primer mandamiento dice que no debemos poner otros dioses delante del Señor. Compartir todos nuestros dones, nuestro tiempo en oración, nuestro talento en obras de caridad, y nuestros tesoros para apoyar a la Iglesia, nos ayuda a mantener a Dios primero en todo. Nos ayuda a no poner otros dioses delante de Dios. Nos ayuda a no ser esclavos de nuestras posesiones. Nos ayuda a utilizar nuestros dones para la gloria de Dios y no para nuestra propia gloria.

Pastor's Office

March 25, 2025

Dear Saint Eugene Family,

I respectfully greet you with the love of Christ and wish you all a blessed and joyful Lenten Season! I had the opportunity to share the news of our upcoming First Annual Saint Eugene Family Festival on May 25, 2025 to our shepherd, Bishop Luis Rafael Zarama. Bishop Luis reminded me of something very important with respect to our parish and to our Catholic Church. As the number of Catholics continues to increase worldwide, thanks be to God; the number of Catholic priests, unfortunately, continues to shrink.

This reminder is important as we look forward to our Saint Eugene Family Festival and seek to raise funds and work together for the betterment of our St. Eugene parish. We must bear in mind that no amount of money can buy or guarantee a priest for our parish. For this reason, I want to clarify that all funds raised will be for the general support of our parish, not exclusively for a second priest. A priestly vocation is priceless, not in the sense of worldly wealth, but because it's a gift from God, freely given and freely accepted. It is not a job for hire, it is a life one is called to.

So in addition to our Almsgiving this Lent and prayers for the needs of our parish, let us please also remember to pray for an increase in priestly vocations. Please also pray for me and my brother priests who have answered the call to serve and to bring the sacraments to Christ's people, especially the Eucharist, which binds us as a community closer to Christ. May this Lenten season continue to be a time of spiritual growth and transformation, as we examine and strengthen our stewardship commitments in the spirit of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. I pray that we may draw closer to God and one another, as we journey towards the joy of Easter.

Thank you for your prayers and consideration

Sincerely,

Rev. Frederic M. Mizengo, CICM
Pastor

Marzo 25, 2025

Querida Familia de San Eugenio:

Los saludo respetuosamente con el amor de Cristo y les deseo a todos una feliz y bendecida Cuaresma. Tuve la oportunidad de compartir la noticia de nuestro Primer Festival Anual de la Familia de San Eugenio, que se celebrará el 25 de mayo de 2025, con nuestro pastor, el Obispo Luis Rafael Zarama. El Obispo Luis me recordó algo muy importante para nuestra parroquia y nuestra Iglesia Católica. A medida que el número de católicos sigue aumentando en todo el mundo, gracias a Dios, el número de sacerdotes católicos, lamentablemente, sigue disminuyendo.

Este recordatorio es importante mientras esperamos con ansias nuestro Festival de la Familia de San Eugenio y buscamos recaudar fondos y trabajar juntos para el mejoramiento de nuestra parroquia de San Eugenio. Debemos tener en cuenta que ninguna cantidad de dinero puede comprar ni garantizar un sacerdote para nuestra parroquia. Por esta razón, quiero aclarar que todos los fondos recaudados se destinarán al apoyo general de nuestra parroquia, no exclusivamente a un segundo sacerdote. La vocación sacerdotal es invaluable, no en el sentido de riquezas mundanas, sino porque es un don de Dios, libremente otorgado y aceptado. No es un trabajo remunerado, es una vida a la que estamos llamados.

Así que, además de nuestra limosna esta Cuaresma y de orar por las necesidades de nuestra parroquia, recordemos también orar por un aumento de las vocaciones sacerdotales. Por favor, oren también por mí y por mis hermanos sacerdotes que han respondido al llamado a servir y a llevar los sacramentos al pueblo de Cristo, especialmente la Eucaristía, que nos une como comunidad más a Cristo. Que esta Cuaresma siga siendo un tiempo de crecimiento y transformación espiritual, mientras examinamos y fortalecemos nuestros compromisos de corresponsabilidad con un espíritu de oración, ayuno y limosna. Ruego para que nos acerquemos más a Dios y a los demás, mientras caminamos hacia la alegría de la Pascua.

Gracias por sus oraciones y consideración.

Sincerely,

Rev. Frederic M. Mizengo, CICM

La Importancia de estar Registrado

Si usted esta planeando bautizar a su hijo/a o ser padrino/madrina es muy importante que usted se registre en la parroquia de su preferencia. Son muchos los beneficios que usted puede obtener si se registra, por ejemplo, si usted necesita una carta de recomendación para inmigración en caso de una reforma migratoria o si esta en tramites con inmigración, o una carta de patrocinador para bautizar en otra parroquia la puede solicitar en la parroquia perteneciente.

Al momento de registrarse en la iglesia, y para permanecer activo en su parroquia, es muy importante que utilice sus sobres de diezmo cuando realice una donación para su iglesia. Si usted necesita actualizar su información, por ejemplo, dirección de casa o número de teléfono, por favor de comunicarse con la oficina al 919 365-7114, Ext. 200 o steoffice@stewnc.org. Muchas Gracias!
