Santo de la Semana San Cirilo de Jerusalén fue obispo en el siglo IV. Sus enseñanzas sobre la Eucaristía, entre otros temas, le aseguraron el puesto de Doctor de la Iglesia. Aunque su ministerio estuvo marcado por el distanciamiento, el exilio, y en última instancia, la reconciliación, nunca perdió su fe. Oración de Amor Dios Padre, me creaste por amor. Jesús, tu amor te obligó a venir a la tierra y morir por mí. Espíritu Santo, el amor entre Dios y Jesús, ahora me rodeas con el amor del Padre y del Hijo. Ayúdame a vivir esta realidad, hoy y para siempre. Amen.	Saint of the Week St. Cyril of Jerusalem was a bishop in the Fourth century. His teachings on the Eucharist, among other topics, secured his place as a Doctor of the Church. Though his ministry was marked by estrangement, exile, and ultimately, reconciliation, he never lost his faith. Prayer of Love God the Father, You created me in love. Jesus, your love for me compelled you to come to earth to die for me. Holy Spirit, love between God and Jesus, now you surround me with the love of the Father and the Son. Help me to live out this reality, today and always. Amen.
MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA La pregunta del millón de dólares es: ¿Será posible querernos como Cristo nos ha amado? ¿Será posible cumplir el mandamiento del amor en medio de tanta guerra e injusticia? En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos invita a permanecer en su amor a no alejarnos de él. No hay que entrar en controversia la situación es clara. Para cumplir con ese mandamiento nuevo tenemos herramientas que son: la oración, y los sacramentos. Con la gracia de Dios todo se puede. Los frutos buenos salen del corazón apasionado por Jesús. “Hijitos, no amemos con puras palabras y de labios para afuera, sino de verdad y con hechos” (1 Juan 3:18). Dicho simplemente con un refrán popular: “Obras son amores y no buenas palabras”. “Ámense los unos a los otros: esto es lo que les mando” (Juan 15:17). Este es el testamento, (mandato) de Jesús a nosotros, cumplir con el amor, la herencia es la vida eterna. ¿Cuántas personas a mi alrededor, que caminan conmigo sienten la verdad de mi amor, de mi cariño? Recordemos que, la alegría más íntima viene de sentirse querido y apreciado. El centro del mensaje de Jesús es eso. Amor, amistad, cariño verdadero. El Evangelio mueve, no se estanca, es estar siempre en salida en servicio del necesitado. El Tiempo de Pascua es oportuno para llenarnos de ese amor. La Iglesia invita a llenarnos del amor de Cristo, para darlo sin medida tal como Cristo nos lo da. ¡Aprovechemos, no ignoremos su mensaje! ©LPi	GOSPEL MEDITATION – ENCOURAGE A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE Once a man came to the Vatican and asked to see Pope John Paul II, claiming that they had been friends in Poland. When told of the man, the Pope said, “He is mistaken about our friendship. I don’t recall ever having suffered with him.” As it turned out, the man had never known the Pope. Now, I’m not sure if the story is totally factual. But doesn’t the juxtaposition of suffering with friendship sound exactly like JPII? He understood that the deepest and most lasting friendships are forged in the fires of shared suffering. No suffering, no friendship. Amazing. This week we hear Jesus say to the apostles and to us, “You are my friends if you do what I command you” (John 15:14). In Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection, God entered the world of human suffering and transformed it into an avenue of friendship with Himself. Following His command — to love, to lay down our lives for others — will always entail suffering. But this suffering only deepens our friendship with Him. His suffering is ours; ours is His. We have become friends of God. This week, how might you share your suffering with the Risen Jesus? How might he be sharing his suffering with you, in the lives of those around you? Be attentive to that, and you’ll find that you are indeed a friend of God, because you’ve suffered together a great deal. - Father John Muir ©LPi
RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman Como Yo te Amo Esta semana mis hijos estuvieron aprendiendo sobre la energía. Hicimos un experimento con coches de juguete: colocamos uno delante del otro y empujamos el tercero contra los dos que estaban parados. El movimiento hacía adelante hizo que el auto delantero se moviera, pero no mucho. “La mayor parte de la energía va al auto del medio, no al auto del final,” concluyó mi hija. Le pregunté por qué ella parece tener tanta energía y yo parezco tener tan poca. “Porque eres vieja,” respondió ella con confianza. La mayoría de los días me siento como ese primer auto, atacando la vida con toda mi energía, amor y buenas intenciones, solo para que el proverbial auto del medio la absorba casi por completo. Es muy fácil desanimarse. El diablo desea con todas sus fuerzas que nos sintamos desanimados. Pero la ley del amor no es diferente de la ley de conservación de la energía. El amor no se crea ni se destruye. Sólo se transfiere de una forma a otra. Y sí, a veces ciertamente parece que desaparece. Parece perderse entre mis manos y el plato de la cena que no se come o se evapora de mis labios cuando temo que mis palabras nunca se escuchan. Se escupe como un mandamiento que el mundo preferiría que no guardara. Pero no estamos llamados simplemente a amarnos unos a otros, a amar cuando parezca eficaz, productivo y apreciado. Estamos llamados a amar como Cristo amó: imprudentemente, desinteresadamente y sí, incluso sin lógica. Estamos llamados a amar con un amor que no se rinde y nunca se retira. Un amor que no teme a la muerte ni al odio del mundo. Un amor que está dispuesto a discutir, a ser criticado, a ser desestimado. Estamos llamados a ser ese primer auto, lanzándonos contra un mundo que no está listo para aceptarnos o comprendernos. Y confiamos en que, aunque no veamos cómo, el amor que parece desaparecer simplemente cambia de forma. “Éste es mi mandamiento: que se amen los unos a los otros como yo los he amado.” - Juan 15:12 ©LPi	RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman As I Love You This week my children were learning about energy. We set up an experiment with toy cars — one was placed in front of another, and a third was pushed into the two stationary ones. The forward motion caused the front car to move, but not much. “Most of the energy goes into the car in the middle, not the car on the end,” my daughter concluded. I asked her why she seems to have so much energy, and I seem to have so little. “Because you’re old,” she replied confidently. Most days I feel like that first car, barreling at life with all my energy and love and good intentions, only to have it almost entirely absorbed by the proverbial middle car. It’s so easy to be discouraged. The devil so badly wants us to feel discouraged. But the law of love is not unlike the law of conservation of energy. Love is neither created nor destroyed. It is only transferred from one form to another. And yes, sometimes it certainly seems like it disappears. It appears to get lost between my hands and the plate of dinner that goes uneaten or evaporates off of my lips as words I fear are never heard. It is spat upon as a commandment the world would prefer I do not keep. But we are not called to simply love one another — to love when it seems effective and productive and appreciated. We are called to love as Christ loved: recklessly, selflessly, and yes, even without logic. We are called to love with a love that doesn’t give up and is never withdrawn. A love that doesn’t fear death or the world’s hatred. A love that stands willing to argue, to be reviled, to be dismissed. We are called to be that first car, hurtling ourselves against a world that isn’t ready to accept or understand us. And we trust that, even when we can’t see how, the love that seems to disappear simply changes forms. “This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.” — John 15:12

"The Vital Link Between Love & The Commandments"

Today, the Lord Jesus continues to develop last Sunday's idea of union with him as a condition to bear fruits of holiness in our lives. He does so by emphasizing that keeping his "Love Commandment" is the practical way to show the reality of our union with him and to bear fruit.

There is a life-giving relationship between union with Jesus and fruitfulness, fruitfulness and love, love and obedience to God's Commandments. The Eucharist we are about to celebrate is a manifestation of our union with the Lord and among ourselves. It is also a most effective way to strengthen such union whenever we proclaim God's Word, participate in shared prayer, and receive Holy Communion.

Question of the Week:

The Lord Jesus has revealed the depth of his love in laying down his life for us. Are you ready to make the same sacrifice? How do you carry out Christ's command: "Love one another as I have loved you"?

† STEWARDSHIP

Whatever you have – has been given.
 Whatever you give – will be returned.

Please remember Saint Eugene in your Last Will and Testament

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." - John 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?

¿Ama a Jesús? ¿Lo considera su amigo? Jesús dice que si lo amamos seremos capaces de ofrecerle lo que tenemos, no porque queremos alabanzas y gloria, sino simplemente porque lo amamos. ¿Su donación parece mecánica y por obligación o comparte sus dones libremente por amor?

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.
 Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
 Never permit me to be separated from you. AMEN

Jesús mío, que estás real y verdaderamente en el Cielo y en el Santísimo Sacramento del altar.
 Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo vivamente recibirte dentro de mi alma, pero no pudiendo hacerlo ahora sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón.
 Y como si ya te hubiese recibido, Te abrazo y me uno del todo a Ti.
 Señor, no permitas que jamás me aparte de Ti. AMEN

La Importancia de estar Registrado

Si usted esta planeando bautizar a su hijo/a o ser padrino/madrina es muy importante que usted se registre en la parroquia de su preferencia. Son muchos los beneficios que usted puede obtener si se registra, por ejemplo, si usted necesita una carta de recomendación para inmigración en caso de una reforma migratoria o si esta en tramites con inmigración, o una carta de patrocinador para bautizar en otra parroquia la puede solicitar en la parroquia perteneciente.

Al momento de registrarse en la iglesia, y para permanecer activo en su parroquia, es muy importante que utilice sus sobres de diezmo cuando realice una donación para su iglesia. Si usted necesita actualizar su información, por ejemplo, dirección de casa o número de teléfono, por favor de comunicarse con la oficina al 919 365-7114, Ext. 200 o steoffice@stewnc.org. Muchas Gracias!
